BIOGRAPHY

From Copenhagen to Ibiza and Tulum, Danish DJ and producer WALTHER has become one of the fast-rising names in international electronic music.

Based in Ibiza, he holds residencies at Blue Marlin Ibiza and Beachouse. In 2025 he played 130 paid gigs on the island and launched his own event series, Do Not Stop, at Blue Marlin. In 2026 he followed with 115 more and warmed up at Blue Marlin for Franky Rizardo, Mason Collective, Butch, Rafael and more. His Blue Marlin and Beachouse residencies continue in 2027.

His sets are high-energy and impactful: a sharp blend of House, Tech House and Indie Tech.

WALTHER started DJing as a teenager in Copenhagen before making his mark in Ibiza with Defected and Café Mambo. He has played three seasons in Tulum, including Bonbonniere, Vagalume, Nomade and ¿Por Qué No? Festival, with a fourth coming up, and his Woomoon set at Cova Santa was featured on Woomoon's official channels.

As a producer he has released around 50 tracks and remixes since 2019. His 2022 remix of Jacob Gurevitsch's Melancolía became an Ibiza anthem, passing 4M Spotify streams and 1M YouTube views. Jamen Ja (2023) was played at Tomorrowland, All Day I Dream and Scorpios Mykonos. Aku Membawa with Islandman was featured by Pete Tong on BBC Radio 1 and remixed by Gerd Janson, and This Dance with Musumeci & Bakean reached #3 on Beatport's Indie Dance chart. In summer 2026 Seth Troxler played the Tiger Stripes remix of Getting High (feat. Boy George) at Circoloco.

The son of Danish music pioneer Kenneth Bager, WALTHER grew up surrounded by Ibiza's music culture and is now shaping his own path: his 12-track debut album THIS DANCE is out 27 November 2026, and TIME with Tripolism, already supported by RÜFÜS DU SOL, follows in March 2027. This winter he is in the studio finishing a run of singles for major labels in 2027, with a possible second album to follow.
